BEAS CONVICTS WHILE DRUNK

Investigating Committee Heard Sensational Testimony.

Special to the Eagle.
Austin, Tex., Nov. 23.—Sensational evidence was introduced before the state penitentiary investigating committee yesterday, when a number of witnesses told of conditions on Burleson and John's convict farms. It was alleged on the stand that Durham of Hillsboro, who had charge of the plantations, treated the prisoners brutally, beating them while under the influence of liquor, according to witness. B. W. Pierce of Hill county, former guard under Durham, named a number of convicts who were abused in this manner. R. J. Ritchie of Hillsboro also testified that Durham mistreated prisoners.

MILITARY THANKS- GIVING DINNER

Fort Sam Houston Will Require 250 Turkeys, Some Cranberry Sauce.

Special to the Eagle.
San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 23.—At Fort Sam Houston the order for the Thanksgiving dinner for the soldiers has been placed. This year it will require 2,500 pounds of turkey, or 250 birds averaging ten pounds each. The government will not purchase a bird which weighs less than ten pounds dressed, or more than twenty pounds. To make the dinner complete there will be prepared 622 gallons of cranberry sauce, 1,250 pies, and 100 cakes. There will be 300 quarts of oysters and 100 gallons of ice cream.

PEANUTS PAY.

Farmers Find Them to Be a Safe, Sure and Profitable Crop.

From six acres of land Mr. O. C. York raised 290 bushels of peanuts and 180 bales of hay. This is 48 and one third bushels of peanuts and 1942 pounds of hay to the acre. 1942 lbs of hay, $15 per ton .. $14.55
48 1-3 bushels of nuts, $1 per bu. 48.35

Yield per acre .. $62.90

Mr. York has had more experience in growing peanuts than many other Lee county farmers is probably the reason that he did better this year than the average farmer.—Giddings News.

Farmers are making a success of growing peanuts wherever given a trial, and the Eagle would be glad to see them go more largely into the business in this country. There is no finer peanut land in the world than Brazos county and by co-operation our farmers can make peanut growing a great and profitable industry.

All that is necessary is to get out of the old rut and get busy. Enough are grown here every year to show what can be done, and all in the world our farmers have to do is to organize, plant an acreage large enough for carload shipments and go in together and buy one or two threshers. It is a safe, sure crop and the returns per acre are greater and cost of cultivation less than any other crop that can be grown in this country.

The Eagle would like to see the Farmers Union take the matter up and give it a thorough trial.

All my land southwest of Bryan is posted, hunters are warned to keep out or they will be prosecuted. J. W. English.

DEATH OF J. W. HOPKINS.

Mr. J. W. Hopkins died at his home in the Steep Hollow community on last Thursday after a long illness. He had lived in this county for a number of years and was a good man and citizen. He was quiet and unassuming, attending strictly to his own affairs, and by his straightforward and honorable course, won the respect and esteem of all who knew him. He was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife, but no children. Besides his wife there are many other relatives who are left to mourn his loss. They have the profound sympathy of all in their deep bereavement. He was laid to rest at Steep Hollow church cemetery on Friday afternoon. Dr. T. H. Morris of this city conducting the funeral services.
